The monk

Bede studied passages in the Bible and somehow came up with a specific day that he believed God began forming the sky, earth, and water:

Mar. 18, 3952 BC

3950 BC  $\rightarrow$  2750 BC
~~C3070 BC~~  $\rightarrow$  C1070 BC

Stonehenge was constructed,
deconstructed, and reconstructed
over a period of some 2000 years.
First came the ditch and bank structure containing the 56 AUBREY Holes & the sarsen gallery (what archaeologists call Stonehenge I. There were 4 stages.
Stonehenge was erected by several extended families, each consisting of approx.

50 to 100 people
